A NATIONAL WRIT DRAFTING COMPETITION

Right to Writ

In Public Interest 2026

FROM THE CLASSROOM TO THE COURTROOM

Every law student studies the writ, yet very few ever draft one that is actually filed. Right to Writ is a Real-Court Training Programme that takes you from free training to a writ petition filed before the High Court or the Supreme Court. It is open to LL.B. students of every year from any recognised institution in India.

How it works

1. Train for free
Three training videos by an Advocate-on-Record of the Supreme Court, on your student portal

2. Send a Representation
Identify an issue of public importance and write to the authority concerned

3. Draft the Writ Petition
Fifty students are shortlisted from the first round to draft the petition

4. File in Court
Maintainable petitions are vetted and filed, with filing costs borne by the Foundation

What you receive

Training by practitioners
Advocates-on-Record and an Advisory Board of Designated Senior Advocates
